Grand Summer Fete

CIAO !

Here at James Terry Court we are coming over all Italian. And why ? Well it is because the First Prize in our Grand Prize Draw at this year's summer Fete is a fabulous week long holiday in Amalfi for two people.

The Annual Summer Fete will be taking place on Sunday the 10th June 2007 in the glorious gardens of the Home. Admission costs just £1 and this will give you a free entry into the Grand Prize Draw.

The First Prize is a holiday for two people staying in the Atrani apartment in the romantic town of Amalfi near Salerno in Italy. The prize includes two return flights from London to Naples and one weeks accommodation. You can find out more about the holiday by visiting the Friends of James Terry Court Web site , fojtc.org or thatsatrani.com. I am sure that you will want to stand every chance of winning this terrific prize so why not come along to the Fete. Whilst there you can enjoy a very pleasant afternoon wandering among the many stalls and taking part in some of the fun activities and entertainment that will be taking place. So why not come along and spend a couple of hours enjoying yourself. You never know, you might end up winging your way to Italy !

LADIES NIGHT 2007

Residents get dressed up for the annual 'night out'

The fourth Annual Ladies' Night recently took place at the Home and was once again hailed as a complete success and has truly become a permanent fixture in the James Terry Court calendar. There was a wonderful buzz in the Home as the staff started the preparation for the evening weeks ahead, organising hairdressing appointments and dresses and suits to be pressed etc. Sandra, our fabulous Chef, suggested a sumptuous menu; W.Bro Roger Thompson offered his services as Toastmaster and members of Tamesa Lodge once again became waiters for the evening.

We were delighted to receive W.Bro Eric Stuart – Bamford, The Provincial Grand Master as President for the evening who was accompanied by his delightful wife, Libby.

As the Residents and their relatives arrived for the banquet, photos were taken which were then printed out whilst the meal was being enjoyed, and then given out along with the Ladies' gifts. A free raffle was also held. Short speeches by W.Bro Chris Rashbrook and W.Bro Frank Lee were followed by an entertainer who finished the evening on a high note – literally! A lovely late night was had by all and is still being talked about.

Our thanks go to all who helped make the evening such a success.

CAN YOU HELP?

As you will have seen from the front cover, the Summer Fete will soon be with us. We are looking for volunteers who can help erect the gazebos and generally help with the setting up of the fete on Saturday 9th June from 10am.

Also, if you have any gifts or prizes that we can use in the raffle they would be gratefully received.

Finally, if you are a keen gardener and are able to donate any plants, hanging baskets etc for the flower stall, these too will be most gratefully received.

We look forward to seeing you at the Fete on Sunday 11th June 2007 and thank you in advance for your support.

FRIENDS AGM

The Annual General Meeting of the Association of Friends of James Terry Court will take place at James Terry Court, 51 Warham Road, South Croydon CR2 6LH, on Monday 25th June 2007. The meeting will commence at 8pm.

The Committee would be pleased to see any who are Friends at this meeting.

Enclosed with this Court Circular is a nomination form for anyone wishing to become a Committee member. Please note that you must be a Friend to join the Committee. All nominations must be received by the Secretary, Graham Page, no later than the 28th May 2007.

YOUR MONEY IN ACTION

How the home puts donations to good use

Once again I am delighted to be able to devote some of the space in this edition of the Court Circular to update you on some of the many good uses that your donations have been put to.

Some of the more substantial items include two restraint systems for the Mini-bus, allowing two additional wheelchairs to be transported in the mini-bus. Also the staff have been able to respond more quickly to the residents by way of new, two-way radios that your money has been able to purchase.

The care wing was also in need of a new television and the Friends were able to provide a flat screen unit that also saves much needed space in the Lounge.

A special 'Rollabout' chair was also purchased for one of our care wing residents, Kate Payne. Without this chair, Mrs Payne would not be able to move about the Home and would be restricted to her bed.

Finally, the garden is soon going to benefit from the addition of a wrought iron Pergola. To be sited in the spot where the old tree used to stand, it will provide a focal point for the garden and will be an attractive place for the residents to sit during the summer.

All of this does not deter from the regular things paid for through your donations, such as theatre outings, in -Home entertainers, exercise classes and visits from a local chiropodist.

Your donations also provide Birthday cards and Christmas presents for all the residents.

Please keep your donations coming so that we can continue with our activities.

A LITTLE OF WHAT YOU FANCY

Does you good !

Xmas Lunch was early this year

On the 12th December, members of the Friends Committee acted as waiting staff at the Christmas Lunch sponsored by the "Friends". The dining room was decorated in traditional colours with seasonal music playing in the background. Sandra and her hardworking team produced a banquet fit for a king all washed down with a glass or two of wine.

All of which made the whole place take on a very festive atmosphere. This event was the first of many that the Residents enjoyed during the season at JTC. It was closely followed by another special occasion that is always celebrated at James Terry Court.

Burns Day

The 25th January every year is Burns Day and a good excuse for a celebration. As in past years Sandra has prepared the traditional meal of Haggis, neaps and tatties and W.Bro George Reid, in full Highland Regalia, provided the bagpipes. The "Friends" provided the Scotch and everyone was happy. After the meal we had "The Haggis Steaks" (no, not a mistake) in the form of horse racing. We think we gave Robbie Burns a good celebration.

St. George and England.

The 23rd of April is St. George's day and on the basis of any excuse for a celebration the dining room was decorated and a splendid meal of Roast Beef followed by Apple Pie was prepared. Some Residents and Friends were suitably attired in red and white, funnily enough – the same colours as the wine! After being wined and dined and being well known for their penchant for gambling, the dining room was once again transformed into a race track and the Residents went to the races.

Summary: A morsel of food with a tippie of drink and an element of gambling seems to be the recipe for an excuse for a celebration at JTC. I couldn't agree with it more!
